

Dallas County Conservation Board Snowmobile Policy for the Raccoon River Valley Trail (RRVT)
10-13-09

- 1) There must be 4" of snow cover on the trail before snowmobiles can use the trail.
- 2) Snowmobiles must remain on the hard surface trail within the county owned right-of way and respect no trespassing wishes of adjacent landowners.
- 3) Snowmobile users are subject to the RRVT user permit requirements.
- 4) No studs are allowed on the snowmobile track on snowmobiles that use the RRVT.
- 5) The Dallas County Conservation Board reserves the right to modify, alter, or repeal the provisions of this policy at any time.

These rules also apply to the trail in Guthrie and Greene counties.

The RRVT is open for snowmobiling from the parking lot in Waukee all the way to Jefferson on the south route. On the North route it is also open for snowmobiling from the Waukee parking lot to Dallas Center but the city of Dallas Center does not allow snowmobiles to go through the city on the trail. The city of Minburn does allow snowmobiles, the city of Perry does not allow snowmobiles, the city of Dawson does allow snowmobiles, the city of Jamaica does allow snowmobiles.
